I'm like a fish, swimming in the river.
All around, above me and below,
Only water, it's all I've ever needed,
Only water, it's all I'll ever know.

*But You are more.
You are so much more.
You are more in me
Than I am in my self.*

I'm like a bird, soaring through the blue sky,
With the breeze, pushing from below.
It's only air, it's all I've ever needed,
Only air, it's all I'll ever know.

I'm like a child, clinging to my mother,
Brought to life and ready now to grow.
Only love, it's all I've ever needed.
Only love, it's all I'll ever know.
