This day I stand before the Father.
This day I stand upon the earth.
This day I see before me life and death.
This day can be a blessing or a curse.
This day can be a blessing or a curse.

*On this day, I will choose life,
The best that God has to give.
On this day, there's no turning back,
From this day on...I choose to live.
This day...This day...*

This day I'll choose to love the Father.
This day I'll walk in all His ways.
This day I'll listen to His still, small voice...
This day will be the best of days.

The Lord is my life
And gives me my days,
The maker and keeper of my time.
The Lord is my light
The guide that I obey,
The reason and the purpose of my praise...
