

You In me

Words & music by Phil Cooper and Steve Givens

© 2000 Potter's Mark Music (BMI)

I've been trudging through the muck and mire, O Lord.
I've been dealing with the nits and fleas.
I've been walking on the brink of discontent.
I've been everywhere but on my knees.
But I know there's a way to bring peace to my life
And be held in the palm of your hand.
Now I'm looking for a way to show the world
This is where I stand.

In all that I do

And all I may be

Lord let the world see

You in me.

I've been looking for a sign from you, O Lord
I've been blinded by the darkness within.
I've been rocked by the terror of hopelessness
I've been searching for a place to begin.
But I know there's a way to start over again
And be lifted up out of despair.
May my life and my love be the Christ they can see
This will be my prayer.

I've been fighting with my heart and soul, O Lord
I've been feeling nervous and beat.
I've been living with a gut tied up in knots
I've been turning up the pressure and heat.
But I know there's a way to conquer the rage
And be free to let the anger go
Instead of striking back when life gets me down
I want your love to show.