Christmas to me, isn't the lights on the tree
The wrappings and the bows
A reindeer's glowing nose.
Christmas to me, isn't so easy to see
In endless games and toys
For little girls and boys.

*And no matter where I go
All the trappings and the snow
It just isn't merry
It just isn't Christmas
'Till I am home again with you.*

Christmas to me, echoes the mystery
The sacred holy night
A grace so pure and bright.
Christmas to me, lives in the memory
Of family and friends
A love that never ends.
